ABOUT GADAR HEROES:

The Gadar ("revolution") movement was started by NRIs on the West Coast of the US and Canada to rid India of British rule. Thousands of these daring people left for India to overthrow the British colonizers. In this struggle, scores were hung and others were imprisoned for life.

Now, thanks to the efforts of the Global Organization of People of Indian Origin (GOPIO International), the Indian government has officially accorded these heroes the respect they deserved in this centenary year of the Gadar movement.
